All registered participants will be receiving a Logistics Package to share with their group by 11-1-2021. Registration is due by November 1st. Share How You Are Commemorating Veterans Day

With Veterans Day a little over two weeks away, many American Legion posts are well into planning for various ceremonies and events. Once again, The American Legion National Media & Communication Division is looking for potential coverage opportunities.

If your post or district is hosting, sponsoring or participating in a Veterans Day event, please share it with National. Email sbrooks@legion.org with details that include the time, date, location and what the event will entail. And if you're conducting Buddy Checks, let them know about that as well.

Special Notice From National:

National sent out a mailing promoting the PUFL program to approximately 370,000 individuals of which 75,000 were SAL members. National states that it was an error in the criteria used to extract addresses for the mailing, not another issue with the new system. They have corrected the issue so it shouldn't happen again. Please inform your SAL members that there is still no PUFL program for them at this time and that the mailing was supposed to be for Legion members only.

Helpful Information from the Department Membership Secretary

- Processing membership for the 2020, 2021 and 2022 years are still available.
- Just a reminder, the 65% membership target date for Posts is Nov. 10, 2021.
- Be on the lookout for some of your member's ID numbers to have changed for both the Posts and the Squadrons. Any members who have a membership ID number starting with 100 or 200 may have a new membership ID number starting with 350, 351 or 352.
- Just to reiterate: National sent PUFL information to both Post and Squadron members by mistake. There still is no PUFL program for the Squadrons. Still only a Legion Program.

If you have questions on the above items or membership in general please contact Deanna, Membership Secretary, by phone, 517-220-2749, or via email, member@michiganlegion.org.
